

Judges' Evaluation Form

Division:

Date:

Team:

	Comments	Score
Problem / Situation Analysis  Good understanding of key issue/problem Thorough analysis of company and industry		/ 20
Options Considered  Sensible short list of alternatives Thorough evaluation of key options		/ 10
Recommended Solution  Clear and concise recommendations Sound arguments supported by evidence / data Innovative thinking that goes beyond the obvious		/ 10
Implementation Plan  Complete solution that addresses all aspects of problem Realistic and feasible plan (operationally &amp; financially) Plan considers risks and potential mitigations Timelines are specific and realistic		/ 30
Quality of Presentation &amp; Delivery  Sensible presentation structure Well-designed slides; key takeaways are clear Synergy between visuals and verbal message Good body language, eye contact, pace of delivery Effective use of intonation, pitch, volume High level of audience engagement		/ 15
Q&amp;A Period  Clear and succinct answers to questions Effective defense of recommendations Constructive response to feedback (appreciative and receptive, not defensive) Balanced participation of team members		/ 15
TOTAL		/ 100

Division:

Date:

Team:

Strengths

Weaknesses

Official Competition Score Sheet
(Completed forms will only be shared with competition organizers)

After both teams have presented, the judges will determine a winner on a 13-point scale; i.e., the total of the points assigned to both teams must be 13 points. There are no ties.

Scoring guidelines:

- 7.0 to 6.0: winning team marginally better
- 7.5 to 5.5: winning team better
- 8.0 to 5.0: winning team clearly better
- 8.5 to 4.5: winning team substantially better
- 9.0 to 4.0: winning team outstanding and losing team weak
- 9.5 to 3.5: winning team outstanding and losing team extremely weak

Date:

Division:

Team:

Score:

/13

Team:

Score:

/13